Seaton town centre earmarked for help

A FORUM examining the vitality of high streets and town centres in East Devon has singled out Seaton as 'a priority to help improve'.

The forum also encourages business owners to apply for business rate relief because of the recent Tesco supermarket build.

The Vitality of High Streets and Town Centres Task and Finish Forum was set up by East Devon District Council's (EDDC) Overview and Scrutiny Committee - and its final report has just been published.

Each town in the district was scrutinised by the forum in a number of ways. The summary for Seaton was frank and to the point, saying: "Of all the town health checks, Seaton was a priority to help improve viability, needing to increase the offer of personal service and specialist shops to attract visitors into the town centre."

Explaining their recommendation, forum members wrote: "The arrival of Tesco, and the scale of the store, has brought shoppers from surrounding areas to the town."

"However, it was apparent to forum members visiting the town that those shoppers are not heading into the town shopping centre itself."

"There were many pleasing aspects to the newly redeveloped part of the town, including the floral displays in the public areas and the new public realm next to the tram station - but more was needed to be done to assist the town.

By Anders Larsson

"In the shopping centre there are some empty shops, and some premises are in need of maintenance."

"During visits to the town centre, it was apparent that footfall is very low. The town council felt that relaxed street trading laws would permit street trading in more locations and allow retail premises to spill out onto the streets, attracting more footfall."

The forum also identified a need for more overnight accommodation capacity, saying that, among others, coach operators had asked for more beds.

Businesses in all towns examined were encouraged to seek business rate relief, with a particular mention for Seaton and Ottery.

Forum members explained that current rates are based on value as at April 1st 2008 - a more prosperous economic time.

Their first recommendation in the report summary is to: Raise awareness of the right to appeal a rateable value to local businesses, particularly in respect of recent supermarket builds in Seaton and Ottery.

A sore point with many traders in all towns is the cost of using EDDC car parks.

The forum acknowledged that car parks generate 'valuable income' for the council, and that finding a balance between a reasonable income and fees acceptable to the public is difficult.

One recommendation issued by the forum is to review parking fees and consider initiatives like periods of free or cheaper parking.

The forum's report will be discussed when the Overview and Scrutiny Committee meets on Thursday, September 27th. The forum consisted of district councillors Tim Wood, Graham Brown, Roger Giles, Pat Graham, Steve Hall, Sheila Kerridge and John O'Leary.

The report is available in full online at www.eastdevon.gov.uk/osagendacombined270912.pdf

AXMINSTER

Town hit by more flooding

AXMINSTER residents are calling for action after rampant floods struck again.

One family's home was flooded for the second time in only a few months, possibly delaying their return home.

Peter Beviss, his partner Yvonne and children Matthew and Sam had to move into rented accommodation after their Willhay Lane home was hit by the July flooding.

After having dried out their vacated home, they had arranged for a builder to start restoration work on Monday. But heavy rain overnight between saw the family's home flooded again.

Mr Beviss said: "It is not as bad as last time but I was gutted when I heard."

A bedroom and a utility space were the worst affected areas, and Mr Beviss had to bring in two dehumidifiers on Monday morning.

The family had hoped to move back home in a month's time, but it is unclear how badly this latest setback will affect their plan.

Mr Beviss said: "It is too early to say. Luckily there are some dry bits the builder can work on."

He has already put in an extra drain on his drive, but the amount of water involved makes it a struggle to protect his home.

When asked what his message is to the relevant authorities, he said: "Do something. Why should I put up with this?"

COLYTON/COLYFORD

Funding vote not fair to Colyford

A COLYFORD resident has argued that the recent vote on how to spend £22,500 on sporting facilities in the area was not fair to the village.

East Devon District Council held the vote to decide how best to spend the Section 106 money, offered by local developers. It was open to all residents of Colyton Parish, which includes Colyford.

However, following last week's announcement that a skatepark in Colyton had won the most votes, Anne West argued that Colyford residents could never win anything for the village, as the population was so much smaller than that of Colyton, despite most of the money coming from developments in Colyford.

From the editor's chair You can't please 'em all!

YOU soon learn in this newspaper game that you can't please all of the people all of the time. In fact, it's rare to please some of the people some of the time.

Last week was a classic example. A member of Axminster's hardworking carnival committee expressed her disappointment with our coverage of the carnival procession.

Referring to our front page story in which we recorded that there were just two arrests made on the night (a fact), she wrote: "What a pity you couldn't say positive things for a change. There are so many people that give their time voluntarily to bring happiness into people's lives. There is enough bad news in the world without highlighting it in an article on the carnival."

Inside the main body of the paper we carried three pages of carnival photos, more than any other local newspaper.

And in this column I referred to the carnival procession as being "a cracking night", describing it as one of the best processions in East Devon.

But that didn't go down well with some of our readers either. At Sector Lane on Saturday, whilst covering Axminster Town, a former carnivalite came up to me and made it quite clear that he thought my comments were "way over the top" and that the Axminster procession was nowhere near as good as it used to be. "How could you write such rubbish?" he asked.

See what I mean? You can't please 'em all.

These are difficult times for local carnivals. The dreaded health and safety regulations and insurance issues put many people off creating floats, reducing the number of entries in most if not all local carnivals.

But they still attract huge crowds and where there are such volumes of people there is bound to be an incident or two. We reported that accurately but not sensationally but also went on, through this column, to acknowledge what a great night it had been for Axminster.

SEATON

Priority help for the town centre

A FORUM examining the vitality of high streets and town centres in East Devon has singled out Seaton as 'a priority to help improve'.

The forum also encourages business owners to apply for business rate relief because of the recent Tesco supermarket build.

The Vitality of High Streets and Town Centres Task and Finish Forum was set up by East Devon District Council's (EDDC) Overview and Scrutiny Committee – and its final report has just been published.

Each town in the district was scrutinised by the forum in a number of ways. The summary for Seaton was frank and to the point, saying: "Of all the town health checks, Seaton was a priority to help improve viability, needing to increase the offer of personal service and specialist shops to attract visitors into the town centre."

Explaining their recommendation, forum members wrote: "The arrival of Tesco, and the scale of the store, has brought shoppers from surrounding areas to the town."

"However, it was apparent to forum members visiting the town that those shoppers are not heading into the town shopping centre itself."

"There were many pleasing aspects to the newly redeveloped part of the town, including the floral displays in the public areas and the new public realm next to the tram station – but more was needed to be done to assist the town."

HONITON

Lack of hotel rooms hinders town

HONITON is a thriving market town but a lack of tourist accommodation prevents it from being promoted as "a destination."

Those are the findings of a forum formed to examine the vitality of East Devon High Streets and town centres.

Vitality of High Streets and Town Centres Task and Finish Forum was set up by East Devon District Council's (EDDC) Overview and Scrutiny Committee – and its final report has just been published.

Each town in the district was scrutinised by the forum in a number of ways.

A largely glowing summary of Honiton says: "Visits by the forum and a number of recent press articles gave a positive impression of Honiton as a thriving market town."

"Traders asked gave a positive response to how they felt the level of trade was in light of the current economic climate."

"The town clearly benefits from the market days with increased footfall drawing visitors into both the market and the town centre shops, but suffers from a significant drop in footfall in the afternoons."

The report also praised an initiative to create The Town In The Country identity, which had been very successful.

On the down side, the report pointed out issues including parking, market stalls selling the same goods as some shops, and accommodation.

SIDMOUTH

Call for more town centre parking

A FORUM examining the vitality of East Devon High Streets and town centres is calling for more car parks in Sidmouth, possibly a multi-storey facility.

Vitality of High Streets and Town Centres Task and Finish Forum was set up by East Devon District Council and its final report has just been published.

Each town in the district was examined by the forum in a number of ways.

The report praises Sidmouth's range of independent shops plus its restaurants and pubs.

But the report also said: "A shortage of parking is a key issue for the town."

"A summer bus hopper service from the Manor Road car park had proved successful, but better signage was required to get people to that car park initially. The forum felt a park and ride facility would help ease parking difficulties, but could not offer a solution to a suitable location."

The report also says: "Plans should be pursued for the provision of extra parking close to the town centres of Exmouth and Sidmouth, possibly involving the building of multi-storey car parks in those towns."

OTTERY St MARY Store has big impact on town

OTTERY ST MARY shopkeepers should be encouraged to seek business rate relief because of Sainsbury's impact, according to a forum examining the vitality of High Streets and town centres.

Vitality of High Streets and Town Centres Task and Finish Forum was set up by East Devon District Council and its final report has just been published.

The Ottery chapter of the report says: "Ottery town centre has been significantly affected by the arrival of Sainsbury's in the town."

"Mixed responses to this were received when forum members visited the town – some in favour, with increased footfall to financial and other services; some attributing falling trade to the fact that the supermarket offered similar products."

"The town council has worked closely with the local chamber of commerce to improve signage and links between the supermarket site and the town centre to encourage visitors to patronise both."

Found in a car boot sale

■ A TRUE LOCAL GEM: Curator of Seaton Museum Ted Gosling shows off the chain of office from Seaton's former Chamber of Trade to trustee Anthony Montan.

THE CHAIRMAN'S chain of office from Seaton's former Chamber of Trade is to go on display at Seaton Museum.

The chain which featuring the names of chairmen of the chamber from 1961 right up to 1979 is made of hallmarked silver and was discovered at a car boot sale in Rousdon last week.

It was purchased for just £2 by a Colyford resident, who wishes to remain unnamed, and has been donated to the curator of Seaton's Axe Valley Heritage Museum, Ted Gosling, so others can enjoy it.

Mr Gosling explained: "During its time, back in the sixties the chamber of trade was considered to be a strong body and a very active group with over 100 members."

"We were very surprised when the chain of office was donated to us, especially when it was found at a boot sale for such a little price, as it is a valuable item and had not been seen for some time.

"As a museum we already hold a folder of nearly all the chamber of trade minutes as well as a number of dinner menus from their annual dinner and dances- occasions which were important for the chamber of trade."

The chain of office is engraved with the words- 'Presented by A V White Esq. MBE- Chairman 1961-1964' and is seen by museum committee members as 'a real local gem.'

As well as the group's regular meetings and dinners, the chamber of trade also published an annual guide for visitors to Seaton, featuring its many members, businesses and attractions in the town.

Mr Gosling added: "Alongside our chamber of trade memorabilia, we have a number of official guides which were printed for visitors by the chamber. These guides featured hundreds and hundreds of businesses in Seaton, Beer and the district from hotels and restaurants, to the holiday parks and attractions in the town.

"What surprised me more than anything else was how sad it is to look over these guides and see how much has disappeared. Practically all the guesthouses and hotels are now residential homes and most of the much-loved family run businesses are also gone."

"The chain of office is really important for the museum as we can appreciate it as a part of Seaton's history when it was a prosperous and thriving town."

The chain of office will be displayed alongside the Chamber of Trade minutes, menus and guides in the next few weeks.

Sponsored walk for Christian Aid

CHRISTIAN Aid supporters from Seaton and the surrounding area got their walking boots on for the annual sponsored walk.

Charity table top sale

THE Seaton and District Lions club will be holding a tabletop sale at Seaton Town Hall on Saturday, October 6th from 9:30am until noon.

Tables are still available at £6 each and can be booked from Kevin by calling 01297 24330.

Refreshments will be available and all proceeds will go towards the Lions' charity work.

This year's walk attracted canine interest too with Molly the spaniel raring to go at the start.

The walkers chose one of two route options and were bathed in sunshine the whole morning.

As it was low tide at just the right time, walkers received an added bonus when they were able to return from the Beer walk along the beach and eat their lunch there.

Sponsorship money is still coming in but it is looking to be another successful and worthwhile event to raise funds to help those in poverty around the world.

Members of the group would like to thank all those who have supported them.

News briefs

MEMBERS of Axminster Chamber of Commerce ended up in detention when visiting Axe Valley Community College.

The chamber uses a college classroom for meetings, but things went badly wrong on Tuesday, September 11th. The meeting finished just after 7pm and the chamber had been issued with a key so members could unlock the doors and exit.

But it emerged that the key didn't fit the reception door lock, so the members couldn't get out. Members then tried the doors at the back of the college, without success. The problem was that nobody had a number for the relevant college caretaker, so a third party was called and tasked to find the number.

A total of 11 members attended the meeting, including a Pulman's View representative. The chamber members were eventually released at about 7.35pm when another caretaker arrived with the correct key.

EAST Devon District Council (EDDC) will seek an injunction against WainHomes over an alleged failure to comply with a planning agreement.

As previously reported, EDDC claims that the developer has failed to provide money for a play area at a development off Chard Road in Axminster. Two developments are completed and the third, Millbrook Meadows, is under construction.

There was an agreement saying each development should come with a play area. None of the first two developments had a play area but it was then agreed that the third development should have a larger one serving all three. EDDC claims that money for the play area has not materialised. In a new statement an EDDC spokesperson said: "Papers are being prepared to seek an injunction to require compliance with the agreement."

WainHomes senior planner Simon Cater said: "The company is actively working with EDDC to fulfil our compliance with Section 106 obligations, we're not aware of any concerns at present."

£9k grant will slash college music fees

A £9,000 plus grant will slash music tuition fees at Axe Valley Community College in Axminster.

Headteacher Martin Smith was delighted to announce that the college has been awarded a grant of more than £9,000 from the Youth Music programme.

Youth Music is a charity whose vision is for all young people to have the opportunity to discover their creativity and fulfil their potential through musical experiences. The grant will enable the college to provide further musical opportunities within its Music Hive, which was recently set up at to provide free access to a broad range of music development activities.

Currently, the Music Hive offers workshops at lunchtimes for all students wishing to experiment with playing a musical instrument with free tuition. Mr Smith said: "We would like every young person to have the opportunity to enjoy playing an instrument and be part of a music ensemble or band."

"We recognise that music has the power to build confidence, broaden horizons and raise aspirations. We are therefore delighted that this grant enables us to offer a wider range of music opportunities to our students."

The grant from Youth Music will enable the college to subsidise the cost of music tuition for all its students. Music tuition, currently £127 per term, will now be offered at a subsidised rate of £100 per term or free to those on free school meals. The college also plans to use the grant to run additional music activities after school two days a week including an orchestra, rock choir, rock school and jazz band.

College spokesperson Wendy Cryer said: "Where possible, each ensemble/band will take part in a showcase performance. Furthermore, the college aims to broaden young people's experience of professional music by arranging free trips for its Music Hive members. These trips will be to significant music events and performances both within the region and nationally."

In addition, Mr Smith said that he had discussed the Youth Music grant with the local primary school headteachers and would be opening up music opportunities to those children where possible.

Town's new foodbank, Canned Sunshine, is up and running

AXMINSTER foodbank Canned Sunshine is up and running.

Drop off boxes were installed at Co-op's West Street branch on Thursday, September 20th – and food can also be donated at Axminster Awareness Centre.

The foodbank has been set up by the awareness centre, which got the green light to go ahead when awarded a grant of almost £8,000 from The Big Lottery Fund in August.

Canned Sunshine is a foodbank for low income families and the elderly. Based on figures supplied by Devon County Council, The Awareness Centre, which is a charity, estimated in May that up to 40 families in Axminster and the surrounding area were in "extreme need" of help to put food on the table.

Another 150 families were said to be in "need" of help and up to another 400 families were at "risk" of needing help in the near future.

Those in need will not have to visit The Awareness Centre as foodbank application forms are also available from the doctors' surgery, Axminster Library, Co-op (West Street branch) and online at www.awarenesscentre.org.uk.

More information about receiving help, sponsoring the project or volunteering for the food bank is available from Aynsley or Jools on 01297 32331.

Rainbows' search for new members

■ COME AND JOIN US: 1st Axminster Rainbows and Poppy the Mascot have had reason to celebrate

MEMBERS of 1st Axminster Rainbows have just finished celebrating the 25th anniversary of the movement, and would love to see new faces join them.

The UK Rainbows concept was founded in 1987 for girls aged five to seven.

To celebrate a quarter of a century, the Axminster group took part in a host of fun activities over a period of time.

This included a trip to Trill Farm, a treasure hunt, making birthday cards and competing in a fun-themed Olympiad.

Julie Grabham, leader of 1st Axminster Rainbows said: "The girls had a fantastic time, especially their walk around Trill Farm."

"They are now looking forward to a trip to the donkey sanctuary, which was postponed due to the floods earlier in the year."

"Rainbows is a great way for younger girls to have a chance to have their voices heard as well as to make new friends and have fun."

"The 1st Axminster Rainbows meet on a Monday evening after school and we are looking for new members to join in the fun."

If you would like more information, call Julie on 01297 32342 or email julie@sam-grabham.co.uk.

News briefs

Inundated with offers

AXMINSTER Museum was inundated with offers to help help iron and fold Victorian and Edwardian clothing.

As previously reported, museum trustee and vice-chairman Douglas Hull made an appeal after a shed full of clothing was flooded earlier this year.

Mr Hull organised the washing of more than 100 garments but needed help with ironing and folding.

Speaking to Pulman's View on Tuesday, September 18th, he said: "It was a great response."

"It became embarrassing in the end because I didn't have enough garments to go round."

"I shouldn't have worried as I knew the people in Axminster always come up trumps."

■ CAPITAL GAIN: The college students also had time for some sightseeing when in London

Parliament apology live

A SMALL group of sixth form students from Axe Valley Community College in Axminster were in the public gallery of Parliament when Prime Minister David Cameron gave the Hillsborough tragedy apology.

Students studying law, economics, history and geography at A-Level and BTEC at the college also met Tiverton and Honiton MP Neil Parish when they visited the capital.

Among other things, the group also toured the House of Lords and House of Commons. Student Matilda Board said:

"Seeing the Prime Minister in action was really inspiring.

"It was great to feel the atmosphere of a real debate."

When meeting MP Neil Parish, the students took the opportunity to quiz him in some depth about higher education funding and financial support for schools in Devon compared to other parts of the country.

Student Hannah Elliott said: "It was really interesting to meet our local MP and to find out his views on tuition fees and other issues concerning our generation."

College students' trip to live Shakespeare play

AXE Valley Community College took a 150-strong party to a live performance of Shakespeare comedy Twelfth Night by The Royal Shakespeare Company in Stratford Upon Avon.

The travelling party consisted of enthusiastic students from both the college and seven local primary schools – All Saints C of E Primary School, Beer C of E Primary School, Colyton Primary School, Hawkchurch C of E Primary School, Kilmington Primary School, Musbury Primary School, Shute Community Primary School and St Mary's RC Primary School.

Axe Valley Community College runs a programme called ASPIRE, which is designed to build links with gifted and talented primary school children in years five and six.

ASPIRE co-ordinator and trip organiser Rebecca Levi said: "I am delighted with the enthusiastic response of all the students on this trip and look forward to widening the range of opportunities we can offer at the college as we launch ASPIRE Arts later in the year."

A number of the college students on this trip are studying Shakespeare's Twelfth Night for their English GCSE.

The students said that seeing the performance live really brought the play to life for them. After the performance, students enjoyed a questions and answers session with Jonathon Slinger, who played the comic part Malvolio and is due to play Hamlet with the Royal Shakespeare Company next year.

Mr Slinger said: "I was particularly impressed by the maturity of the questions asked by the students from Axe Valley Community College, which ranged from acting to technical issues."

Headteacher Martin Smith summed up by saying: "A fantastic trip."

"Nothing beats seeing Shakespeare performed live."

"Meeting the lead actor, Jonathon Slinger, after the performance was fascinating too."

Seaton shops set to benefit from new contract

SEATON'S business development officer has had her contract extended as she looks to boost trade in the town.

Heidi Hallam's contract has been extended for 12 months in the hope she can continue to make a positive and permanent change to businesses and community projects.

She has been working two days a week since February to increase awareness and regenerate economic development in Seaton.

She is contracted with Business Information Point (BIP) to support the Chamber of Commerce and local businesses.

A major aspect of Mrs Hallam's role has been to work on the ground with communities and local business holders, and to report back to the town and district councillors about the needs of the community.

■ Heidi Hallam

By Laura Goldsbury-Noy
laura@pemedi.co.uk

Mrs Hallam was invited to last week's town full council meeting to explain her role within the town and her achievements so far.

She told councillors local businesses have benefitted from social media workshops in order to inspire traders and give them a chance to boost themselves using other methods such as online media and self-promotion.

She said: "The idea is strategic in a way to reinvigorate the high street and encourage new businesses."

"It is all about maximising what we have and working on existing projects and capitalising on these whilst encouraging new businesses to join the town."

She added: "Highlights for me have been the many successes during my time here so far working with the wonderful people, from local businesses to groups identifying issues with the majority saying that it is a very difficult time to trade."

"It has been good to boost the energy and impulse for activities in order to make change. I feel that it has been very rewarding to help the community and support the many groups in Seaton."

Councillor John Seward said he understood there was a need for intervention in order to boost the town's economy and business but also felt there was a level of importance for businesses to also promote themselves.

But former town mayor, Councillor Bob Palacio, criticised the business scheme.

He said: "The retail industry has changed completely over the past five or six years and people are either taking their shopping online or in larger supermarkets, seldom using smaller retailers."

"I think it is really difficult to change the attitude of people towards their business."

Councillor Mark Fisher voiced concerns Mrs Hallam's close involvement with the Chamber of Commerce meant there was 'not a fair representation of Seaton when looking at just the chamber of commerce'.

However councillors heard 55 members of the chamber group and up to 150 service businesses have been contacted in total with three-quarters independent of the chamber.

Mrs Hallam's plans to boost trade in the seaside town include: increasing signage for visitors, an audit to gauge footfall and a pictorial map highlighting businesses in the area.

To date initial planning of additional seafront and beach activities, working on trial pop up shops, a local business showcase event, community games and events and improving links with town groups has also been part of the business development idea.

Mrs Hallam is set to hold a drop-in surgery to talk to traders directly, as well as a business newsletter, and launch Seaton Business Awards with prizes for best independent and non-independent retailers.

Beer Youth Hostel hosts charity open day

BEER'S YOUTH HOSTEL TEAM | Pete Hoggard, Andrew Griffin and new manager Mike Ruiter

BEER Youth Hostel held a special open day to promote its services as a charity.

The youth hostel, which has been based in Beer on Bovey Combe for nearly 80 years, has recently been taken over by new manager, Mike Ruiter.

The 26-year-old Dutchman is keen to promote the services and activities that the Youth Hostel Association can offer both to the local community and to those visiting Beer.

The open day played host to a number of activities including a barbecue and treasure hunt in a bid to let not only visitors know about the hostel but also to raise awareness to local people, who may not know the hostel is there.

Mike explained: "I am new to the area, but have previously worked at a youth hostel near Salcombe and I am so pleased to be stationed here as manager."

"We are really hoping to get a feel for the community and work with local groups and organisations, as we have a great space here not only for visitors but for locals to use."

"We don't want to take away from the local community so we are keen to promote local activity providers such as the fishing in Beer, and attractions like Beer Quarry Caves and Pecorama."

"As a charity we aim to give children a wide variety of new experiences, enabling them to learn outdoors as well as catering for families and individuals of all ages."

The hostel provides for all ages, with self-catering and catering facilities, rooms and dormitories and on site camping facilities.

Whilst also working as the charity YHA, the hostel also supports 'Breaks for Kids' - a charity which supports disadvantaged children, providing funding for youngsters who cannot attend school trips and children's activities due to finance issues.

In the next year Mike hopes that he can boost the hostel's status in the village and the surrounding area, working with local people and introducing more trips for school groups so they can experience the outdoors and Jurassic Coast.

Mike added: "It means a lot to me to support children and to work with local people and everyone should have equal opportunity."

"I really hope that people can come and approach us with any ideas, both to use the property and to work alongside us as the YHA."

For more information on the youth hostel in Beer email beer@yha.org.uk or call 01297 20296.

Rainbows enjoy afternoon at Seaton Marshes

SEATON Rainbows enjoyed an afternoon wildlife session at the Seaton Marshes learning about the Axe Valley Estuary and surrounding area.

The group met up with Educational Ranger for EDDC, Meg Knowles who took them on a tour of the area, a well-known and regularly visited space for the rainbows group.

The youngsters' first task was to create 'natural caterpillars,' with each child given a colourful caterpillar, which they then reproduced with natural leaves, flowers, stones and berries to create their own special picture.

They then enjoyed a chill out session in front of the reservoir, showcasing their caterpillars and learning about the importance of plants and foliage being different colours and textures.

The final task for the group was the chance to make clay pottery 'tree monsters.' The monsters, which came in the form of faces, were then hung on the trees for the children to enjoy.

Rainbows Leader Dawn Squire said: "I would really like to thank Meg- the countryside rangers for the Seaton marshes area have been so valuable to our group and they are really easy to work with.

"It is so fantastic that we have such a beautiful and natural area to explore with the girls so they can learn about wildlife and the natural habitats around us."

Beer Rainbows appeal for new members

MEMBERS of 1st Beer Rainbows are desperately hoping that more girls will join them. Current membership stands at four, and an open afternoon has been arranged for Wednesday, September 26th.

One of the leaders, Tracey Hansford, said: "When we opened in 2011 we had a large group of girls but those girls who started with us have turned seven years old, which has left us with four girls.

"If your daughter is interested in joining our unit we would welcome you with open arms.

"Rainbows are the youngest section of the Girl-Guiding Association, aged five to seven years old.

"We run a fun-filled programme which allows the girls to learn new skills as well as the opportunity to mix with fellow girls of similar ages.

"If your daughter would like to come and see what we have to offer, then please come along to the Scout Hut on Wednesday, September 26th."

The open afternoon will run from 3:45pm-5pm. More information is available from Tracey on 07783 386971.

All set for pumpkin show

BEER'S Pumpkin Show will once again return to the village on Saturday, September 29th.

Entries for the pumpkin show will be accepted up until 4pm on the day and the show will take place upstairs at Beer Social Club.

Visitors are welcome to attend the show from 7pm onwards, with prizegiving and a produce auction in the evening. Refreshments will be available.

■ Another jumble sale at the Scout Hut in 2012

Scouts recreate history

BEER Scouts followed in the footsteps of their predecessors by holding a gigantic jumble sale at their Scout Hut 50 years on from staging an identical event.

The group were inspired to hold the jumble sale in celebration of their centenary year when they found an old picture in a box at the scout hut which showed a small group of scouting boys 50 years ago standing on the steps to the hut. Beside the group was a sign marking 50 years of scouting in Beer.

Scout Leader Fiona Gage explained: "After seeing this picture we just had to recreate the event and the picture. We have not held a jumble sale in a long time so we were unsure how it would go.

"However thanks to the generous people of Beer we had lots to sell and we had lots and lots of people through our doors on the day."

Since the old picture appeared in the Pulman's View two weeks ago as an appeal to find out who the children were, the scouts have had a great response with people offering names to the faces and investigating potential sources of information.

The scouts were even lucky enough to meet Kevin Broyd, on old scout from the right of the picture, who happened to be in the village the week the photo went to press.

Mr Broyd was stunned to find a picture of himself from 50 years ago in the local paper and thought it was great that the scout group were still going strong in their 100th year.

Group Scout Leader Nigel Groves said: "I want to thank the village for their continuing support and the great turn out at the jumble sale which raised just over £500."

Explorer scout, Doug Izard said: "It was great to re do the old picture - I wonder if they will do one in 50 years time?"

If you think you can help name some of the children in the photo, call Nigel on 01297 21159.

Pastel demo for Axminster Art Society

LOCAL artist Lynda White gave an interesting and highly informative demonstration on the use of pastels to members of the Axminster Art Society at their September meeting.

In a talk entitled "Exploring Pastels – Oil, Wax and Soft" she cleverly compared the different types by dividing her picture vertically into four strips and completing each strip in turn using a different kind of pastel.

A soft pastel, with its chalky characteristics, was used first on a dark pastel paper and Lynda (pictured right) showed how it will get colour onto the paper quickly, although it cannot be overlaid too much without the use of a fixative.

The second and third sections were completed with water soluble wax pastels, first using them without water on dark pastel paper and then with water on white water-colour paper. When used dry, the wax pastel needs a firm stroke but it can be overlaid and colour layers can be removed by scraping to achieve special effects. Lynda then showed how scrapings from the wax crayon can be mixed with water and applied with a brush to give background washes, as in the third strip.

The picture was completed on white water-colour paper using water-resistant oil pastels to provide the detail and washes made from shavings from Inkntense blocks mixed with water for the background. Oil pastels tend to be chunky giving bold strokes while the wash from the Inkntense blocks give strong colours.

Lynda also demonstrated how paint may be taken directly from the block with a wet brush and how they can be applied to wet paper.

Looking at the finished work, Lynda concluded that it was clear that pastels offer a range of different experiences for the artist; soft being the easiest to get colour onto paper, soluble wax maybe more fun while oil/Inkntense gave a range of strong colours. Members showed their appreciation for the talk with a warm round of applause.

The next meeting of the Society will be on Wednesday, October 17th when Michael Saunders will demonstrate painting with acrylics in "Using Acrylic Mediums

Paignton watercolourist visits Seaton group

USING just five colours – and the white of the paper – to create a wonderfully free image of a Sumatran tiger, Paignton watercolourist David Webb delighted a large group of Seaton & District Art Society members at the September demonstration in Seaton Town Hall.

It was the first time the Town Hall audio visual equipment and a new Society camera had been used so that everyone in the group – all 60 of them – had a view on a large screen as the work emerged. One member congratulated the artist for doing the preparatory, light pencil sketch at the demonstration on a completely blank piece of stretched 200lb medium, not paper.

"So many come with the drawing already done," she said.

David, who lives near Paignton Zoo, used his own photograph of the tiger.

"I like to sketch from life," he said, "but I couldn't bring a tiger along with me!"

He mixed the colours – light red, burnt and raw sienna, auriole yellow and ultramarine – first on the palette and then on the paper. He advised members to "make a lot of the background so that it looks as if the animal belongs there".

Working carefully round the eye, as he never uses masking fluid, he added: "This is the scary bit – where you find out how good you are."

His audience were delighted to show him just how good he was with their enthusiastic applause led by chairman Fred Slatter.

The October meeting is on the unusual date of October 15th, 2pm to 4pm in the Town Hall where Hampshire artist Mike Bragg will demonstrate how to paint a portrait in oil over acrylic.

Visitors are very welcome.

Phoenix ladies learn about lace

AXMINSTER Phoenix Ladies Club met in mid-September following the summer break.

Condolences were offered to member Rita Brickill on the recent and sudden passing of her husband, Eric, whose funeral was attended by some of the Phoenix Ladies. A donation to charity has since made in his memory from the club.

Two prospective new members who came along to the meeting and were welcomed.

The November shopping trip to Cardiff is scheduled for Monday, November 19th and non-members are also invited to join the trip, which will cost £13 per head. Further information is available from Lesley Frankau or Penny Daglish.

Menus for this year's Christmas Lunch at the Belmont Hotel, Sidmouth, on Monday, December 10th were handed out and members were reminded that completed menus and full payment is required at the November meeting.

The chairman reported that letters from Ida Shepherd and Lesley Frankau for Aita Kumari, the young secondary schoolgirl Phoenix Ladies are sponsoring in Nepal, have been sent in response to Aita's earlier letter. Contact will be made again later in the year when it is intended to send a members' group photograph.

The chairman welcomed Mrs Pat Perryman who came along to talk to about Honiton Lace, illustrating her talk with both photographic information and framed lacework. Pat has taught and created beautiful work over the last 40 years and is well known locally, nationally and internationally visiting European and Far Eastern countries. Her renowned work includes a jabot and lace cuffs for Bernard Weatherill, former Speaker of the House of Commons, a jabot for the Mayor of Exeter, framed lace Swan for The Princess Royal, during a local visit when she awarded Pat the Freedom of the Town of Honiton.

Other commissions include the Queen and, of course, Queen Victoria's wedding dress and veil, plus a christening robe for her first child, Princess Victoria.

Honiton Lace has been made in the area since the 16th century, when lace was widely used throughout the country.

By 1870 there were 2000 lace makers in Honiton, declining gradually to nine, in the 1930s. The only lace-making factory in the country which exists today is in Tatworth, Somerset.

A fascinating account and stunning visual display of outstanding fine lace work which will no doubt encourage members to visit Honiton Museum to view the speaker's jabot and lace and items worn by the Duchess of Windsor, currently in the museum's possession.

The next meeting is on Wednesday, October 10th when Margaret Weston's daughter Jane will be showing slides, aided by Margaret and telling us about their visit to Mexico last year.

Visitors are always welcome.

Round Table looking for new recruits

HONITON and District Round Table is opening its doors to new members as the dust settles on the Great British Summer.

With the shorter nights drawing nearer, men across the Honiton area will be putting away their barbeques and golf clubs, which is why the organisation is firing up an early recruitment drive to give locals a new way to spend their evenings.

Jason Thomson, from Round Table, said: "With children back at school and adults returning to work after taking time off for holidays, men typically look for new social activities as the dark evenings draw in, scuppering any outdoor after work plans."

As well as personal development skills such as speech writing and public speaking, Honiton and District Round Table offers a wide range of social activities, opportunities for local men to network and the chance for members to give something back to their local area by organising community events.

Jason continued: "Round Table is all about providing a fun and relaxed environment where men from all walks of life can socialise and get involved in all kinds of team activities and trips. It's great that so many people have joined Round Table this year.

"We're welcoming anyone who's interested in getting involved to go along to their local Table and see what it's all about. The more, the merrier."

To find out more about Honiton and District Round Table, including how to join, email join@roundtable.org.uk or visit the Round Table website www.roundtable.co.uk/findoutmore

HONITON

AT the September meeting, members of Honiton Afternoon WI were very pleased to welcome as their speaker Neil Hurlock, manager of the TRIP Community Transport Association, who has worked for TRIP since 2004.

TRIP started in 1997 running in conjunction with other ring and ride schemes. Members were told about the many services that are available to the people of Honiton and the surrounding areas. There is a ring and ride door-to-door minibus service, voluntary car service and wheelchair accessible transport.

Neil then went on to explain about the range of manual and powered mobility equipment that is available on short or long term hire, also disability aids. Hospital transport can also be arranged and there is a minibus hire for community groups.

Particular mention was drawn to the Befriending Service where volunteers are always needed. In this day and age so many families live miles or even oceans apart and this leaves many people with a very solitary lifestyle.

Members were shown an interesting selection of information leaflets which are readily available at the TRIP offices in New Street.

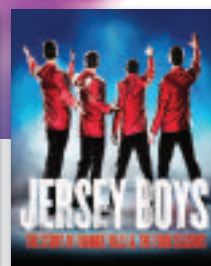

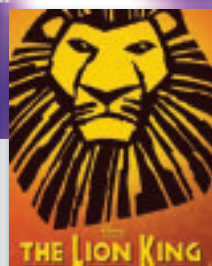

It was a most interesting and informative meeting enjoyed by everyone. A vote of thanks was given by Briony Trew on behalf of the members.

The next meeting is on October 8th at 2pm in the Methodist Chapel, when the speaker will be Chris Griffiths from the Citizens Advice Bureau.

Visitors are always very welcome to attend.

YOUR LETTER COULD WIN £10 VOUCHER

to spend at Archway Bookshop, Axminster

Fancy a chance to join the RAF as civilian instructor?

■ AS I am sure you are aware, the government is very keen for teenagers in your area to take advantage of the military and leadership opportunities offered by the Air Training Corps (ATC), possibly known by your readers as the Air Cadets.

In order for more teenagers to join, and to continue support of nearly 1,000 cadets currently with Devon and Somerset Wing, we are seeking the help from additional adult volunteers who are willing to work with these children, aged 13 to 20-years-old.

Volunteers do not need any past military experience as full training will be given, covering all aspects required to deliver the cadet experience.

CRB checks are required and will be undertaken by the Air Cadet Organisation (ACO).

The range of activities is vast, covering activities such as flying, gliding, adventure training, leadership training, music, numerous sports and visits to various military establishments to name but a few.

Adult volunteers initially join as civilian instructors.

These volunteers contribute fully whilst remaining out of uniform.

After a short period of time the volunteer may wish to apply to enhance their contribution by putting on a Royal Air Force uniform.

This can be either as a Non Commissioned Officer (NCO) or Commissioned Officer in the Volunteer Reserve (Training) Branch.

Daily rates of remuneration may then be awarded.

There is no call up commitment to any volunteer who contributes to the ACO at any time.

If you have any readers interested in contributing to this very worthwhile cause, I would be very grateful if they could contact my Wing Executive Officer at Wing

HQ.

They will then be contacted to discuss further any contribution they may be willing to make this fantastic and very credible youth organisation.

Many thanks.

AXMINSTER CARNIVAL CAN'T BE RIVALLED

AS A frequent visitor to Axminster over the years and now a resident of almost two years, I've somehow managed to always miss the carnival, but not this year.

I'd like to raise my proverbial hat in respect to everyone who took part in this incredible spectacle.

The procession was nothing short of brilliant: some of the costumes I saw were of the standard of a big budget film, the drum troupe were great and the floats... I stood there speechless, wondering how many hours of hard work and how much money had gone into their construction just for one night's use.

The usual notion of a village parade is of a group of amateurs and their dubious creations on the back of an old lorry and looking rather embarrassed about it all.

Axminster put on a show that couldn't be rivalled by the best that London (my birthplace) could offer.

In fact, modern day Londoners guilty of this misconception, if challenged, would be more likely to present an inoffensive, watered down, green, politically correct affair that only a psychiatrist might be capable of understanding.

As a hard nosed Londoner of the old school, I'd like to say brilliantly done Axminster.

It was a fantastic show and I'm now looking forward to next year.

Mick Hawksworth

Help us fill even more shoeboxes this year!

■ WINTRY chills remind us of tens of thousands of children living in squalor in unheated poor shelter and without hope, in the icy snow of Eastern Europe.

These childrens' lives can be brightened by a brightly-covered shoebox filled with gifts of love that are useful, playful and warm.

Our little Samaritans group last year sent over 300 boxes with your help. Make it more this year please.

Sadly our lovely Seaton shoe shop has closed so we need the help of those of you with cars load your boots weekly with empty shoeboxes and deliver them to our porch.

We shall be glad to receive fillers as well as shoeboxes from now until November 10th.

May we remind you that £2.50 per box will help share the cost of delivery etc over thousands of miles.

Thank you and god bless you with joy.

My Dear Old Thing blows in

CRICKET has always been one of the passions of my life so it was especially enjoyable to be asked to compere an unforgettable sporting evening at Axminster Guildhall on Sunday.

Like all cricketing fans, I'm a huge admirer of BBC Radio's Test Match Special and if I could choose my dream job (other than editing Pulman's View, of course), I would like to be a member of that commentary team.

A key and legendary member of the TSM team is Henry Blofeld, a wonderfully eccentric English toff who has a worldwide following and who is in much demand on the speaking circuit.

Henry - or Blowers as he is known to his fellow commentators - was booked to appear at Axminster on Sunday in a fundraising event for the locally-based ARC charity which offers counselling and psychotherapy, helping more than 200 local people every year.

It says much for the universal appeal of Henry

Blofeld, whose catch phrase is "My Dear Old Things", and the admiration for the work of ARC, that 240 people bought a ticket for £15 at a time when it's very difficult to fill a hall for any event.

The evening was superbly organised by the ARC committee, led by Catherine Davies and helped by Tom O'Donnell, a professional events organiser in London whose family run the Volunteer Inn in Lyme Regis.

I arrived early to meet Henry before the show started and he told me he was feeling a little "fuzzy" because he had been celebrating his birthday the night before.

"It turned out to be a seven bottle job, dear boy," he told me in those distinctly rich and plummy tones. Henry, of course, is renowned for his love of wine and even has his own label which he sells at his speaking engagements.

He kindly gave me a bottle of a very acceptable white Burgundy.

Test match commentaries from Henry and his colleagues are about much more than just cricket. As

EDITOR AT LARGE

regular listeners will know, the delivery of various cakes to the commentary box at Test matches is the subject of much discussion and enjoyment; even the Queen gave them one on a visit to the Lord's Cricket Ground.

Henry tells a lovely story of how fellow commentator Jonathan "Aggers" Agnew asked the Queen, much to the embarrassment of his colleagues, whether she made it herself. To which Her Maj replied: "No but it was prepared under close personal supervision."

Henry could have been a professional cricketer himself, having played for Eton and scoring a century at Lord's for the Public Schools XI, a feat only equalled by cricketing greats Peter May and Colin Cowdrey, had he not been involved in a serious accident when he was knocked off his bicycle at a young age, putting him in a coma for a month.

He dabbled with banking after being sent down from Cambridge but loathed life as a city gent. Cricket was always going to be his future, as it was the only thing he was good at, and after writing on the sport for various national newspapers he finally got his big chance to join the Test Match Special commentary team. He readily admitted that you can't really call it a job as they had so much fun.

Henry has undoubtedly had a colourful life, to say the least, chronicled with great humour and pathos in his biography 'A Thirst For Life', copies of which, along with his other books, he sold after appearing at the Guildhall on Sunday.

Whilst there were a number of familiar faces from cricketing circles in this area (Les Haynes is pictured chatting with Blowers after the show), including several from Cloakham Lawn and former Chardstock stalwart Frank Huddy, the audience also numbered many of the fairer sex for whom Henry clearly had great respect.

He spoke for more than two hours and recalled a number of non-cricketing episodes in his life including staying with Ian Fleming on his honeymoon and some hilarious tales when he dined with Noel Coward and Sir Lawrence Olivier which the ladies clearly loved. They did not seem to be too offended by his fruity vocabulary either.

He also had some wonderful stories about his much lamented former colleague Brian Johnson - "Jonners".

Knowing Henry's predilection for the finer things in life, the ARC committee presented him with a cake before the show and I got the audience to sing "Happy Birthday Blowers", which pleased him no end.

At the end of a marvelously entertaining evening, Henry spent a good half hour signing his books and selling his bottles of wine.

He was then off to stay the night at a b & b in Dalwood and then on to Truro for his two-man show with TMS producer Peter Baxter.

At the age of 73 he shows no sign of slowing down and does about 100 speaking engagements a year.

A night to remember, my dear old things!

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

LINDA Chester begins this week for us: "Apart from Down-ton Abbey, there is another series that has created quite a cult following.

"I'm thinking about three fascinating BBC farming series; Victorian Farm, Edwardian Farm and the current Wartime Farm. It makes a change to watch accomplished historians rather than actors undertaking the hard slog and deprivation which farmers in previous generations faced.

"My great-grandmother was organist at Sevington Methodist Church, Somerset, and it's nice to think she would have played the same harvest hymns that we sing at the Harvest Festival. For many people, harvest is their favourite annual service; we are relieved and thankful that, even after the wettest summer for 100 years, the various harvests have been gathered in.

"These entertaining television programmes highlight the fact that every harvest, even with all the modern machinery, is the result of a year's hard work and waiting. Let's remember and pray for our farmers in this difficult financial climate, and give thanks to God for their commitment and dedication."

The Church of England Synod in July postponed a decision on the first women bishops. The General Synod is due to vote on the draft Measure in November. The critical view of the House of Bishops which could affect the final vote is likely to be known in the next 10 days.

It is a coincidence that November also is the 20th anniversary of the General Synod decision, by a big majority, to ordain women as priests. After 20 years they are a vital.

Back to Church Sunday is with us again on September 30th - thousands have answered invitations to return to church to give thanks for this ministry.

Honiton churches offer opportunities to praise God on Sunday, September 30th at 6.30pm in the Church of the Holy Family, and October 21st at the Baptist Church.

Branscombe Church starts All Age Services on the 5th Sunday monthly from September 30th, at 11.15am. Colyton Harvest Community Service is on Sunday, October 7th at 11am.

Noah's Ark for pre-school children during term time on Thursday afternoons, starts October 4th - enquiries to Wendy at 551177. At the Reece Strawbridge Youth Centre, Colyton, every second Sunday between 4-6pm, will be a Messy Church meeting - contact 551177.

GILL Mayers is Axminster born and bred, and runs her own catering business, Gilly's, in the town. Her business will celebrate five years of trading in November and, despite the recession, she has just expanded it. Gill says Axminster is on the up but, when going overseas, Italy is her favoured choice.

● WHAT made you start your own business?

I'd been employed in various jobs before but I wanted to be my own boss. If you don't give it a go, you don't know. You don't want to get to the end of life and say 'I wish I had'.

● REGARDLESS of trade, what would your advice be to anyone about to set up their own small business?

Go for it. Know your market and be flexible to change.

● YOU are bucking a general trend by expanding when many businesses downsize or fold altogether. How is that possible?

It seemed silly not to make full use of the premises I already have. The capacity is here, so I guess I'm not taking as much of a risk as I would have been if I started up from scratch. Having been cooking for Axminster Care Service Lunch Club for three years every Tuesday, there is a real sense of pride knowing you are providing a nicely cooked meal for the older generation. Expanding this service to a delivered hot meal, I hope, will help those who find it difficult to manage alone.

● WHAT was your dream job when growing up?

I don't think I had one. It's all about life and learning at that age. You try a few jobs and make your choices from there.

● YOU were born and bred in Axminster, so know the town inside out. What are the pluses and minuses with the town?

On the plus side, in the last five years Axminster has been up and coming with more choice in general (like shops). There is always room for improvement in any town, but I can't see any major minuses in Axminster.

● WHAT is your favourite holiday destination?

One hundred per cent Italy. The food, the wine and the ambience. It is just lovely.

● WHAT would you do if you won a really huge amount of money?

I would pay the mortgage, help my family and friends and enjoy life.

● What makes you happy?

Health and well-being.

Council blame planning issues on staff turnover

STAFF turnover has been blamed for difficulties to monitor planning permission compliance at East Devon District Council.

An EDDC overview and scrutiny forum last autumn found that enforcement officers don't routinely inspect developments to make sure planning permissions/conditions are complied with.

An update was published in March this year, saying the enforcement service had been boosted by integration with planning teams, recruitment and staff returning from sick leave. But a further report, issued this month, revealed ongoing staff turnover. Following reorganisation, recruitment and the return from sick leave, EDDC boasted three enforcement officers - the highest number it has ever had.

Since then, one enforcement officer left, bringing the number down to two enforcement officers. A replacement was subsequently found, but another enforcement officer left in August.

EDDC recruited a replacement officer who started on September 17th, and the new report said: "Following this date it is hoped that the service will remain fully staffed in the long-term and it will be possible to undertake the monitoring of development sites as envisaged by the forum."

Anniversary for red squirrel project

GOOD news to learn that practical steps are being taken at Escot Park, near Ottery St Mary, to restore the fortunes of our native red squirrel.

Once so common countrywide, these attractive little animals have suffered severely from the introduction of the American grey squirrel, an animal which carries the deadly squirrel pox virus to which it is immune, but which has reduced the red squirrel population to a few isolated sanctuaries, such as Brownsea Island, Poole.

Now, at Escot, a three quarter acre walk-through enclosure, the second only in the UK, has been created, specifically to house free-range red squirrels in an environment protected from greys. To mark its first birthday, a single female red squirrel, bred at the British Wildlife Centre in Surrey, has recently had her first litter of two kits, born at the end of July in a drey of leaves, moss and bulrush down and sited in an ancient oak tree.

Whilst red squirrels are kept by several zoos in conventional caged enclosures, the unique aspect of the Escot site is the open topped natural enclosure with mixed woodland and two oaks which are over 250 years old. This type of large, safe enclosure may well offer a solution to the survival of red squirrels until a solution to the grey squirrel virus is discovered.

As funds become available through donations and sponsorship, the intention at Escot is to create a specially designed breeding facility with the object of providing red squirrels for re-introduction programmes in other parts of the country.

Escot is also organising a major national red squirrel conference entitled 'Lessons in Red Squirrel Conservation' at the University of Exeter in April next year. Meanwhile, if you would like to see the kits at Escot, the Park is open every day from 10am to 5pm. Call 01404 822188 for further details.

Sticking to the same area, I have just had a report from Misch Kennaway, the Tale Valley balsam control team co-ordinator, detailing the hard work put in this summer to eradicate this wretched alien invader. The final balsam pull was on August 23rd, the first time the team had added a fourth day to their programme, a provision found necessary as there are always plants which had been previously overlooked but are now in flower. For instance, a half acre of wild ground previously cleared by five volunteers a month previously, now displayed a further 100 or so flowering balsam plants.

This work is so essential if the progress of this unwanted invader is to be stemmed. Volunteers to help are essential and grateful thanks must go to sponsors who have covered the costs and provided equipment.

Good to learn that the Portland to Studland reef habitats have now officially been designated a Special Area of Conservation. The importance of this site was highlighted by the work of hundreds of volunteer divers who recorded seabed species through Seasearch, co-ordinated by the Dorset Wildlife Trust.

Within the site can be found brightly coloured sponges, brittlestars and corals, and a wide variety of fish. The condition of the reefs is excellent and testimony to the sensitive fishing methods adopted by local inshore fishermen.

A number of other local sites, mostly considerably smaller than this - including sand and gravel to seagrass meadows - are also being considered for protection as recommended Marine Conservation Zones and a decision is expected next year.

Meanwhile, I have been delighted to see my buddleia covered in tortoiseshell butterflies, peacocks and red admirals and even as I write they are still seeking nectar from the late flowering purple blooms.

This year, however, I have not spotted a hummingbird hawkmoth, that fascinating insect which so closely resembles its avian namesake as it hangs in the air, probing for nectar.

However, Tony Cass from Honiton writes to tell me that he watched one feeding on red valerian at Spindlewood Close this year. A lovely insect but, I suspect, one rarely spotted this damp summer.

The Goose Fayre returns!

THE event is now a regular on the Colyford Calendar attracting over 2500 people. The Colyford Goose Fayre has taken place in the small East Devon village for many hundreds of years, since the reign of King John in 1207, until 1890. The event has been running now for 30 years (with a couple of exceptions) and last year the local clubs, charities and church benefitted from the proceeds. It was revived by villagers in 1980 and has since been held every year on the closest Saturday to Michaelmas. The traditional medieval fayre attracts thousands of visitors each year and features many popular attractions including the famous parade through the village. The colourful medieval procession will kick off proceedings at 2pm as villagers gather in fancy dress and make their way through the village to Springfield, home of the Colyford Goose Fayre. The Fayre starts with a medieval theme and local country crafts in costume abound. The Fayre starts with a medieval costume parade through Colyford, featuring Fighting Knights, Medieval Dance group and the inevitable Morrismen. Other entertainment includes the Sutton Re-enactment group, Paul Hill the wondering Minstrel, Sarah Shoemsmith demonstrating her circus skills and there will be falconry from Mere Down Falconers. Traditional skills will also be on show with demonstrations in metalwork, pottery and thatching and a variety of hand made produce will be available to buy from honey and ram-roast to beer and elderflower champagne. The Colyford Goose Fayre will take place on Saturday, September 29th from 2pm at Springfield. Entry is £3 and free for under 14s. All money raised from the event goes back into the community and towards next year's fayre. For more information visit www.colyfordvillage.co.uk.

Coping with bereavement

GRIEF is quite common and is the normal internal feeling one experiences in reaction to a loss, while bereavement is the state of having experienced that loss.

The potential negative effects of a grief reaction can be significant and are often aggravated by grief triggers, events that remind the bereaved individual of their loved one, or the circumstances surrounding their loss.

The risk factors for experiencing more serious symptoms of grief for a longer period of time are related to the survivor's own physical and emotional health before the loss, the relationship between the bereaved and their family member or other loved one, as well as related to the nature of the death.

Bereaved individuals who feel the death of their loved one is unexpected may be at greater risk for suffering from major depression, post traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), or prolonged grief.

The seven emotional stages of grief are shock or disbelief, denial, bargaining, guilt, anger, depression, and acceptance/hope.

Symptoms of grief can be emotional, physical, social, or religious in nature.

To assess grief, a health caregiver usually asks questions to assess what symptoms the individual is suffering from, then considers whether he or she is suffering from normal grief, prolonged grief, or some other issue.

Coping tips for grieving include the bereaved individual's caring for his or herself through continuing nutritious and regular eating habits, getting extra rest, and communicating with surviving loved ones.

Consulting with solicitors or other legal experts is advisable when either planning for or managing the legal matters associated with a death.

Some of the major legal issues involved with dying include the person's right to have informed consent to receive or refuse treatment, advance directives and making funeral arrangements.

Wonderful selection of Genuine French produce at the French Food and Craft Market in Ottery St Mary

LE MARCHE de France has been invited to visit Ottery St Mary in October, and bring a great range of high quality and fresh produce from all regions of France for one day for everyone to enjoy.

There will be a magnificent cheese stall with a truly enormous selection of French cheeses. Bread will be baked onsite, in front of visitors, on the new bread and patisserie stall and the smell of bread, croissants and pastisseries should hopefully spread in the whole town centre. There will also be the Charcuterie with wonderful sausages, olives, Turkish delights, smoked ham and Calvados pate. Pure Butter Homemade biscuits, cakes and Ginger bread, Mustards, sauces and, of course, garlic will be on offer as well! For those with a sweet tooth, wonderful natural honeys as well the hugely popular crepes stall will be on display. If you still have a small space left after all that, the sweet stall will also be making fresh pralines, almonds and cashews on site.

And for those who like South of France, they will find soaps from Marseille, lavenders, tablecloths from Provence... Oh, La la!

The market will take place on the Land of Canaan Car Park, Ottery St Mary on Saturday, October 6th from 9-4pm.

'The Man' comes to the Corn Exchange

VAN Morrison is widely regarded as the finest Soul and R&B artist the U.K. has ever produced with a stack of awards and accolades to his name which includes six Grammy Awards. His nickname, 'Van The Man', bestowed upon him by his legions of fans says it all.

The Man is the country's premier tribute to Van Morrison featuring star vocalist Phil Hambling in an uncanny performance as the great man who is backed by one of the most exciting R&B bands currently touring the country.

The Man concentrates on the music from Morrison's golden era and includes all his greatest hits including 'Brown Eyed Girl', 'Moondance', 'Jackie Wilson Said', 'Bright Side of the Road' and 'Baby Please Don't Go'. Van Morrison rarely sings these songs in his own shows, so this is the only opportunity you may ever get to hear them performed live, in the way 'The Man' originally intended them.

The Man will be at The Corn Exchange, Exeter on Saturday, October 20th.

WARRIORS AT RAMM

New exhibition explores Native North American warfare

VISITORS to Exeter's Royal Albert Memorial Museum (RAMM) will be fascinated by a new exhibition exploring the world of Native North American warfare and ritual through the material culture of Plains Indians between 1800 and the present.

A British Museum touring exhibition, Warriors of the Plains: 200 years of Native North American honour and ritual includes exceptional examples of regalia: feather headdresses, shields, moccasins, painted hides, pipes, tomahawks, and traditional and contemporary dress. Although many of these items may seem initially familiar from popular culture, the exhibition uncovers the deeper ritual significance of these iconic objects. The legacy of the warrior societies is also examined, revealing how crucial they are in the maintenance of tribal identity among Plains Indians today.

RAMM is the only museum in the Southwest and one of only four venues nationally to host Warriors of the Plains.

The free exhibition is open now and can be seen until Sunday, January 13th 2013.

A local response to the exhibition is being sought from veterans and members of the armed forces. Their experience in the military gives them particular insight to the personal codes that have guided combat across centuries, continents and cultures. Entitled Once a Warrior the resulting digital display will be included in the exhibition from 12 October reflecting these West Country military perspectives in art and in recorded interviews.

The exhibition is accompanied by two talks on Wednesday, November 21st: • Lunchtime talk - Dr Stephanie Pratt, Associate Professor of Art History at Plymouth University, will discuss visual representation of Plains peoples in American and European art.

• Afternoon talk - Max Carocci, Project Curator in the Department of Africa, Oceania and the Americas at the British Museum and curator of the Warriors of the Plains exhibition, will talk about continuities and changes in traditional approaches to war from warriors to soldiers.

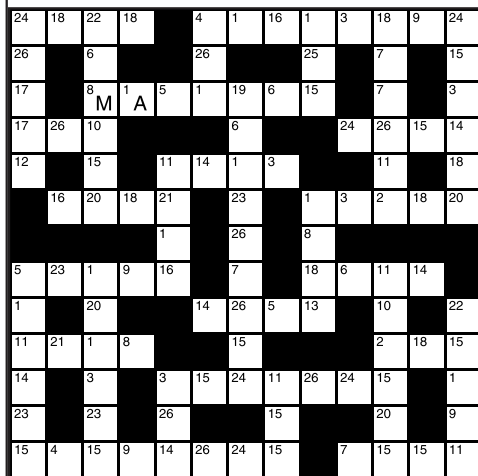

Both talks will cost £4.50 and tickets will be available from the Museum reception during opening hours in October, call 01392 265858.

Andreas Boyde returns to Honiton

ONE of the problems in presenting a pianist of great talent, is that there are so many artists who are described in extravagant terms that the words can be meaningless and not to be taken seriously.

However, Andreas' first appearance here in Honiton, last November, was indeed a 'night to remember'. A well known local pianist, it is said, went home to his wife lamenting, "I'm going to chop up my piano and cut off my hands!"

Andreas is a pianist of exceptional talent whose playing makes the hairs stand-up on the back of your neck; totally engaging, his artistry and virtuosity is mind-blowing.

We can experience this artist again in Honiton at his Recital on September 29th, at 7.30pm in St. Paul's Church. He will be playing a superb Steinway Concert Grand. His programme includes works close to his heart, which he recorded with his dear friend, Joanna Leach, for her Athene label - Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition and Ravel's Miroirs. This 5-star CD will be on sale at his Recital.

Following the BSO's concert in St. Paul's, Andreas' appearance crowns a week of wonderful music making by exceptional musicians. Such riches, such a feast!

Jed Grimes to play Jurassic Folk Night

ALL the way from Geordie land, Jed Grimes has a spectacular musical pedigree with a charismatic quality that shines through his music. Coming from that rich breeding ground of fine folk artists, the North East of England, his journey has found him as a member of several distinguished bands, such as Hedgehog Pie (with the Doonans) and The Hush (with Bob Fox), and many other fruitful collaborations alongside his solo career.

What can you expect at a Jed Grimes concert? How about... a fistful of original, unique arrangements, great songs with wonderful choruses, his precise, eclectic and sometimes flamboyant guitar style and his powerful, emotive singing.

With his Geordie insouciance, spontaneous interaction with any audience, and easy confidence as a raconteur, Jed always entertains as well as delivering a thought-provoking musical experience.

Support on this occasion is being provided a lovely duo, Malc and Ceri, and Chard's notable folksinger, Nic Parsons, both acclaimed regulars at Jurassic Folk Singers Nights.

To witness the artist known as "The North-East's Secret Weapon", be at the Grove, Seaton on October 3rd at 8.15pm. Advance tickets at £5 are obtainable on the website www.eastdevonfolk.org or by phoning 01297 20064

ABC Wedding Dresses

Hi I am Caryl. My family and friends have run ABC for 22 years, we have enjoyed helping many ladies of all ages and desires dress for their big day.

At ABC we have over 400 different designs of bridal gowns, bridesmaids dresses, prom and evening gowns in up to 90 different colours. These are from collections from top designers.

We have extensive sales rails.

Upstairs is our bridal boutique we order dresses to sell ranging from £295.00 - £1099.00, sizes from 8 - 30 in stock and on certain dresses can be ordered up to size 40.

We have several top quality seamstresses available to alter your dress maximum cost of £75.00. So this will make the cost of your dress less than any other bridal outlet. As so often they include the price of fitting in the overall price of the dress, if you need a fitting or not.

Delivery times vary between 6 - 16 weeks also allow time for alterations. If we are fitting we like to fit 8 weeks and hopefully 4 weeks before the wedding. However expectant mums and last minute weddings are normally fitted 10 days before the big day.

We offer a hire service on certain dresses, prices vary depending on the dress.

So if you are looking for a huge choice of gowns, Professional service (if we don't know how to help ladies after 20 years, we never will!!!), Friendly not pushy attitude, Everything you need, we can provide (except knickers and vests) Maybe, just maybe you should visit us and enjoy this magic time.

Whiter Smiles

USING advanced LED Light technology, we offer quick, effective and affordable Teeth Whitening solutions!

Your smile is one of the features people notice first. A brighter, white smile will enhance your natural look whilst increasing your confidence and creating a lasting impression on everybody you meet. Cosmetic Teeth Whitening can treat: tea, coffee, cola, red wine, curry, tobacco and aging.

How does it work? This safe and gentle procedure involves the use of oxidizing agents accelerated by LED blue lighting. The oxidizing agent penetrates the porous element of the tooth enamel and breakdown stains that block light and cause discolouration. The treatment can last from 12 - 18 months depending on various factors such as smoking and regular consumption of staining agents.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Head to Feet

I first started caring for peoples health in the sixties when I did my S.E.N nursing training in Sheffield.

The real introduction to Complementary Medicine was when my second child become ill, and it was only osteopathy that helped her. About the same time a friend of mine was having trouble with her back, she asked me if I could massage it for her, as I seemed to have healing hands, I was able to give her a lot of relief, being in a lot of pain at the time. I become more and more interested in Complementary Medicine and was able to help my friends and family even more.

It wasn't until we came down to live in Axminster, I was working as a Care Assistant in a Dementia Care Home, that I decided to take a course or 3 with the "School of Natural Health Sciences" in Reflexology, Advanced Reflexology", and "Indian Head Massage". I was an A student. I became a member of the "International College of Holistic Medicine". As Indian Head Massage consists also of back and shoulder massage [as well as neck head and face] with or without out oils I am able to continue with Back and Shoulder massage as a separate therapy if required. I am able to work from home including home visits, and care homes. Treatments usually last about 1hr. and includes perfumed candles and soft relaxing music.

Reflexology is massage of the body as a whole through the feet or hands. As with Indian Head Massage it relaxes and stimulates the whole body, thus allowing it to work better. Allowing me to help each client with there own individual needs.

As I am also a carer at home I have been able to realize how important these therapies can be.

Ford Mondeo named greenest family car by What Car? again

THE Ford Mondeo has been declared the UK's greenest family car by What Car? for the second year running.

The 1.6-litre Ford Mondeo TDCi ECONetic is the magazine's segment winner, thanks to an official combined fuel economy figure of 65.7mpg and CO2 emissions of 114g/km – meaning owners pay road tax of only £30 a year.

At yesterday's What Car? Green Awards, the magazine highlighted the Ford Mondeo as a driver's car with eco credentials.

"The Ford Mondeo is deservedly a winner for the second year running," said Chas Hallett, What Car? editor-in-chief. "It's a great family car and does everything What Car? expects a green family car to do. It might be five years old, but it's still the best in its class because it offers the best combination of practicality, driver involvement, performance and low environmental impact."

The magazine's green jurors selected the 115PS Ford Mondeo's Zetec series as offering the best blend of affordability and equipment, including climate control, cruise control and Bluetooth phone connectivity as standard.

Mark Ovenden, Ford Britain managing director, who collected the award, said: "The Ford Mondeo remains a favourite thanks to style, comfort and its responsive fuel-efficient engines. I'm delighted that our latest powertrains in Ford Mondeo have again caught the eye of What Car? and are making its green family car award our own."

The award-winning Ford Mondeo Zetec, which also boasts standard Auto-Start-Stop and EasyFuel to prevent misfuelling, is priced from £21,195 (five door) and £22,445 (estate).

BMW economics: BMW 3 series is crowned What Car? Green car of the year 2012

THE new BMW 320d EfficientDynamics Saloon has fought off tough competition to once again be crowned Best Executive Car of the Year at the What Car? Green Awards 2012, going on to top the field and be awarded the prestigious accolade of Green Car of the Year.

The BMW 320d EfficientDynamics Saloon won over the judges with its unconventional statistics, combining outstanding fuel efficiency and emissions with impressive performance. With a combined fuel consumption of 68.9mpg and CO2 emissions of 109g/km, the 320d EfficientDynamics Saloon is still capable of travelling from zero to 62mph in 8.0 seconds. It was this no-compromise blend that ensured the most parsimonious 3 Series model took the top green honour.

Not to be left in its big brother's shadow, the most frugal BMW in the range, the BMW 116d EfficientDynamics 5-door Sports Hatch, was also awarded Small Family Car of the Year. Emitting just 99g/km CO2 means that not only is it exempt from the London Congestion charge and qualifies for free VED but it also only incurs 13 per cent benefit in kind company car tax. All of this, together with its nimble handling and generous equipment levels, ensured that the cleanest BMW was a worthy winner.

Chas Hallett, What Car? editor in chief, said: "BMW's engineers have worked very hard on their conventional engines and have given them some very unconventional green vital statistics. The choice of the 320d EfficientDynamics automatic Saloon as What Car?'s Green Car of the Year was a unanimous one. The 320d lets consumers who want to do their bit for the planet do so without compromise."

BMW named most sustainable car manufacturer for eighth consecutive year by the Dow Jones Sustainability Index

BMW's dedication to sustainability has again been recognised by the Dow Jones Sustainability Index, which has named BMW the most sustainable car company in the world for the eighth consecutive year. Since its inception BMW is the only automotive organisation to have featured every year on the index, which is the leader in obtaining an accurate like-for-like analysis of companies.

'Take the pledge' that could save your life

AS PART of this October's tyre safety month, TyreSafe has launched a potentially life-saving pledge on its Facebook page - www.facebook.com/tyresafeuk - that is designed to help keep drivers safe on the roads this winter.

Visitors to the site will be asked to commit to taking 'the 20p pledge' which means they agree to check their tyre tread depth using a 20p coin within the next seven days. After taking the pledge, their commitment will then be shared with their Facebook friends asking them to do similar.

Stuart Jackson, chairman, TyreSafe, said: "The 20p pledge is a great way for drivers to check their tread depth and ensure that they are safe and legal as we head towards the wettest months of the year.

"Adequate tread is essential in providing better grip and shorter stopping distances in the wet, as well as helping to reduce the risk of aquaplaning. Those taking the pledge are demonstrating their commitment to safer driving which hopefully might help reduce the number of tyre related accidents on our roads."

Sufficient tread depth is critical to safe motoring. The tread grooves are carefully designed to remove water from the road surface and keep the tyre in contact with the road. If the tread grooves are not deep enough, water cannot be moved resulting in a loss of grip and traction which can lead to longer stopping distances, reduced handling and an increased likelihood of aquaplaning.

But the good news is that the 20p test is quick and easy to perform. A 20p coin is simply inserted into the main grooves of the tyre to check the tread depth. If the outer band of the coin is visible when inserted, then the tyre may not have sufficient depth and should be checked by a qualified specialist.

"Although the 20p test is incredibly quick and easy to carry out, we've also added a short animation to show how it's done. It's available to watch on our Facebook page, so there's every opportunity to get involved and do the test," added Jackson.

Tigers on top in cup derby clash

Match reports

Woodbury 3 Axminster Res 1

DIVISION 4
DESPITE fielding probably their strongest squad of the year Axminster Town Reserves came unstuck against a well-organised and resilient Woodbury side.

The Tigers found themselves 1-0 down after 10 minutes and never recovered.

Adam Downes hit the crossbar on 20 minutes and Woodbury broke from the rebound to make it 2-0.

The hosts then made it 3-0 on the hour before Downes converted a penalty late on after Joel Seward had been upended in the box. Ax, who put in what manager Alan Beer described as "their worst performance of the season so far", created a number of late chances, but to no avail.

Axmouth 9 Okehampton 3

DIVISION 4
CHARLIE Clarke stole the show with his second hat-trick of the season as Axmouth thumped visiting Okehampton 9-3 to maintain a good start to life in division four.

Clark scored four times with Asa Sandman, Dan Jeeves, Reece Hayles, Matt Ellis (2) chipping-in for the Hammers who led 4-0 before the Okes reduced the arrears to 4-2 with goals either side of the interval and grabbed a late consolation.

Axmouth Manager Laurie Forino said: "We've had a great start but perhaps have played the weaker sides so far, but if we continue our level of performance then we will be tough opposition for anyone."

Round-up

BEER Albion ran early D&E Premier division leaders close before going down 2-1 at Furzebrake. Luke Bartlett netted for the Fishermen.

Feniton remain second after Andy Jones (2) and Paul Dowling scored the goals in a 3-1 win over Newtown.

Not such good news from Colyford Road where Jonny Wilkinson and Tom Vincent were on target but Seaton Town recorded their second defeat against St Martins in a week.

◆ Because of his wife's illness Devon and Exeter League secretary Chris Davey is asking clubs not to call him but to contact another League officer.

Throgmorton Cup round one

AXMINSTER Town's best run in South West Peninsular League continued on Saturday with their fifth win of the season in 12-1 victory over local rivals Sidmouth Town in the first round of the Throgmorton Cup, writes Philip Evans

The Tigers went into this cup fixture content in the knowledge that they will be playing on the excellent Sector Lane surface for a few more weeks and lying in fourth place in Division 1 with 13 points, just three behind leaders Teignmouth but a game in hand.

Sidmouth, languishing at the foot of the table with only one point from seven games, came determined to give their high-riding rivals a game – and that's exactly what the did with a late rally that called for some determined defending from the Tigers.

HOLLIER MAKES IN THREE

OTTERY St Mary racing car driver Ed Hollier battled for supremacy in the M.G. Car Club's Wiscombe Park hill climb.

At the wheel of his 1600cc Suzuki Hyabusa powered Pilbeam MP62 Hollier added to his brace of wins the previous weekend when he stormed to victory in a time of 35.84 seconds to take the fastest time of the day from another MP62, the two litre version of Andrew Dinner who posted a best climb of 37.24.

Hollier was not the only trophy winner from Ottery as Stephen Wickers took third place in the Pre 1955 Standard and Modified 1101-1500cc class in his MG XPEG engine Dellow Mk2. The professional pilot guided his 1952 manufactured machine to the top of the 900 metre course in 57.25 seconds following home Andrew Morlands MG engine Lotus 6 and the MG Dargue Special of Chris Pamplin.

Dave Norman claimed third place with his Renault Clio 172 Cup in the 1800cc – 2600cc category of the Road-going Production Car class. The Exeter company director climbed to a best time of 47.09.

The Road-going Specialist Production class for cars with engines ranging from 1400 to 1800cc was won by Roger Coote in his Ginetta G32. Roger's time of 47.12 gave him the victory by just over one second leaving Ian Hodgson in the runner-up slot with his Westfield SEiW.

The following day the National Hill Climb Association event put motorcycles centre stage at Wiscombe Park. Jimmy Hodges set the track alight not only taking a class win but also claiming a maximum points haul for the British Championships.

The motorcycle mechanic, who claimed the British championship crown in 2010, started his winning ways in the 500cc class. Aboard his 450cc Honda GV CRF he set a first climb time of 40.84 seconds to take an early lead but improved his pace at the second time of asking securing the win with a 40.53 best. Apart from bringing victory in the class this time constituted a new outright hill record improving on the previous benchmark of 40.78 seconds.

Tom Short claimed the runner-up slot with his 470cc Honda CRF just under one second in arrears with Tommy Hodge collecting the third place award on 42.12 seconds.

The 750cc category saw the initiative taken by Jimmy Hodges with a first climb of 40.99 which gave him hope of a double win but Paul Jeffery on his Honda CR put paid to that with ascent in 40.75 seconds. Hodges was unable to find any further pace so was obliged to settle for the runner-up slot ahead of Glynn Poole and his Honda CRF.

Poole also took third in the 1300cc class on his Buell behind the winner Ben Wilkins who stormed his Aprilia Falco to the top of the 900metre course to a new outright two wheel record of 40.28 seconds.

Chris Keates claimed the honours in the 250cc class when he hustled his Suzuki RM to the win by a healthy margin over second placed Duncan Fisher and his Yamaha. Keates carried good speed to climb in 44.92 seconds.

The Keates family took another winner's trophy when Patrick and Paul claimed victory in the Sidecar class on their Baker F1 outfit by just under a stunning four and a half seconds.

Ladies left holding the spoon!

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

MAIN CLUB

MEMBERS of Axe Cliff competed for the Carnival Cup throughout the last week.

The eventual winner with 37 points was Anthony Hellier with Richard Gibbons, who obtained two twos during his round, second with 36 points.

Alan Cooper also had a two. Cyril Hellier took third place with 35 points.

On Sunday the main club played the Tradesman Cup, a foursomes tournament.

Pairs get drawn out with a high and low handicapper playing together.

The winners were Paul Curtin & Alan Cooper with a net 66. Second place went to Steve Anning & Anthony Chadwick.

Players with twos were Chris Glover & Andy Gabb and Cyril Hellier & Dave Morgan.

LADIES SECTION

IN glorious golfing conditions the Axe Cliff Ladies competed last Wednesday for the monthly Stableford and the Vets Bowl.

The Stableford was won by Helen Kenworthy with the Vets Bowl going to Vice-Captain Sandra Walker.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

WOODEN SPOON

THE annual matchplay battle for the dreaded wooden spoon between the Ladies and Men's sections had been going far too well for the ladies in recent years.

Having to give two courtesy shots and allowing the ladies to play off their own card made life very difficult for the men's section, so to wrinkle out a 6 and 2 win was positively outstanding by Club Captain Paul Dimond's team.

TUESDAY MIXED

A LARGE field played in the very popular Treble Six Format for this weeks Mixed Competition.

Once again we welcomed our regular Country Members from Wales who play in our Mixed when they are down in the West Country.

The winners this week with 40pts were Lady Captain Jackie Seager & Max Pipe. In 2nd place with 37pts on c/b were Dot Grove & Paul Witton with 37pts.

In 3rd place, losing out on c/b, were Jan Dickinson & Paul Ritchie.

This month's organisers are Linda & John Northover.

KEN FORDIE TROPHY

SIXTY EIGHT Seniors turned out to play a Stableford round for the Ken Fordie Trophy but despite the good conditions, the scoring was not particularly high.

The Trophy was won by Stan Squire who topped Division One with 40 points. Mike Kent came second with 38 points and behind him came Ted Chandler, Peter Shepherd and John Dickinson.

The Second Division was won by Mike Jones

■ HONITON GC Lady Captain Jackie Seager with Club Captain Paul Dimond and the wooden spoon

with 38 points followed by Norman Runci-man, Brian Morrison, Bill Eaton and John Foster.

Swimming Chard & District

CHARD & District Swimming Club held its fourth and final in-house Club Gala of the year at Flamingo Pool in Axminster.

Over 80 swimmers ranging in age from 6 to 16 years took part.

There were some excellent swims at the Gala which secured a Silver Speed badge for Marianna Dyer, swimming under 36 seconds in the 50 free for the first time.

Forty four County qualifying times were achieved along with nine regional-level times (although regional/national times cannot officially be achieved at this level of gala).

Swimmers who achieved regional - level times were: Hannah Pullinger (16) 100 breaststroke; Abi Dare (15) 100 breaststroke; Tessa Down (15) 100 breaststroke; Luke van den Barselaar (16) 50 free, 200 back; Jake Hallam (16) 50 free, 100 butterfly; Ben Fowler (16) 200 back; Elisha Hawkins (12) 100 breaststroke.

Open Water Success

THE weather also held out last weekend for the Blackbuoy Cup Open Water swim organised by Bridport Barracudas Swimming Club.

The event, held at West Bay involves swimming a distance of a 'Bridport Mile' (roughly 1222 metres) from the beach swimming straight out to sea, around a buoy and back again.

Chard swimmer Lauren Harrison (15) entered the event this year for the first time. Despite being the fourth swimmer overall and first female to emerge from the rather choppy sea, Lauren ended up in a race to the line with Sophie Dawe of the Barracudas who came out of the water close behind her and made a dash for the finish line.

Lauren, belatedly realising she had to actually cross the line a few metres away on the shingle beach, made a final run and both girls completed the race with exactly the same time (19.54 mins).

Lauren was awarded second place for the Ladies Cup and presented with a first place Junior Girl's Cup.

A close finish and perhaps a good lesson to be learnt there!

◆ Swimmers of the month for July were Simon Davis (11) and Leonie Housham (9) who achieved the most progress points at Club Gala 3 in July.

In August the trophies went to Elisha Hawkins (12) and Jake Hallam (16) for the most points achieved from all events during the year as there were no galas during August.

◆ Chard & District Swimming Club are always looking for new members.

Sessions are held at Axminster, Chard and Crewkerne, as well as long course training at Millfield School pool. If you would like to find out more or arrange a free trial please visit our web-site at www.chardswimming.org.uk

Scrum-down rugby round-up

Honiton edged out by Truro fightback

WITH KEITH JENKIN

HONITON 24 TRURO 26

THIS was an exciting game of rugby union football, with the issue being in doubt until the whistle for no side sounded. Honiton were asked to play down the slope during the first period and certainly had the better of the earlier exchanges.

They took the lead after some ten minutes play when, having carried the ball up, they recycled, spun it wide for centre Coutts-Tucker to cut a good angle. His inside off load found Meadows who linked with Rice and the number eight got over from the twenty two. Out half Meadows added the extras and added to his side's score in the short term by kicking a penalty goal to give Honiton a 10-0 lead.

The visitors came back however and reduced the arrears with a couple of penalty goals to trail 10-6 on the half hour. The final few minutes of the half were pivotal as regards the result. The home side were wide with three kickable penalty attempts during this time and then, just before the break, one of their attacks broke down.

A pass was intercepted and one of the Truro back three ran to the posts. The try was converted and the visitors led 13-10 at the halfway stage, and furthermore would have both slope and breeze in their favour throughout the second period.

It was the visitors who drew first blood after the break when they kicked an early second half penalty, but Honiton were far from done.

They responded with a try, and it was a good one. Coutts-Tucker made the initial break and put winger Thompson over out wide. Meadows again converted and Honiton had inched ahead at 17-16.

A penalty on the hour did restore the Truro lead however, only for the home side to respond yet again with a try by flanker Ben Small, again converted by Meadows. Honiton now led 24-19 with 10 minutes left, only for Truro to break their hearts by getting over for a converted try.

The home side did have control during the last few minutes, with the Truro defence conceding a rash of penalties.

None were really kickable however and Honiton ended the day frustrated and ruining earlier missed chances.

Honiton should have gained confidence from their overall performance however, which demonstrated that they can certainly compete at this level.

CULLOMPTON 3rd 45 HONITON 2nd 5

POOR old Honiton. Having travelled over the hill expecting to fulfil a Merit Table fixture, they found that, on the occasion of the Cullompton Club's vice presidents' luncheon, Oldfield Old Boys, Cullompton's first side's opponents had conceded and that Honiton were expected to fill the breach and face a side laced with players of South West Division experience on the club's main pitch.

They did so and found themselves trailing 45-0 at the break. They kept at it however. Cullompton rang the changes and Honiton in fact, won the second half with a try, touched down by skipper Tom Churchward, after a quickly taken tapped penalty.

NORTH PETHERTON 32 SIDMOUTH 29

WHEN looking at the score line one would certainly feel that this was a close game throughout, but that surmise could not be further from the truth, for Sidmouth had a pretty ordinary first hour before rousing themselves to give their opponents a very real fright.

The newly promoted North Petherton side opened the scoring with an early penalty goal, and doubled their lead with another, around the ten minute mark.

They then turned over possession at a line-out, spun the ball wide and scored a converted try to lead 13-0.

Sidmouth did respond via the boot of Matt Goss, around the twenty five minute mark but, just before the break, the home side ran a wayward kick back to very good effect, and scored a converted try to take the score line to 20-3 in their favour at the halfway stage.

The visitors did not start the second period all that well, with their opening drop out going directly into touch. North Petherton won the scrum back on halfway and set up a period of pressure that culminated in them scoring an unconverted try after some fifteen minutes.

They then touched down a converted effort just after the hour mark to lead 32-3, and would have felt with some justification, that they were home and housed.

Not so! Sidmouth awoke! Full-back James Powell started the rally by coming into the line and putting winger Meadham over. Matt Goss converted and, with out half Luff beginning to make sniping runs, Sidmouth were beginning to fire.

It was Luff who both initiated the move that brought the next score, and completed it. Goss again converted and, at 32-17 Sidmouth had a little cause to hope.

Then, in the 38th minute of normal time, Chris Higgs broke through the centre of the home defence and ran to the posts for Goss again to convert to take his side certainly into losing bonus point range.

The referee added on 10 minutes of injury-time and during it, Sidmouth, who had nothing to lose, set up an attack that went wide to the wing, was switched, and finally flanker Pyne was up to score in the opposite corner.

The hurried conversion failed and, although there was time for the drop out, the next dead ball brought the game to an end with Sidmouth having failed, just, to bring off one of the more unlikely rallies. Rugby is a strange old game!

PREVIEW

SIDMOUTH entertain the newly relegated BRIDGWATER & ALBION side on Saturday.

There is a strand of recent form to guide the prediction, for I see that the visitors won a fairly close encounter at North Dorset this season, while Sidmouth dominated the Gillingham side at the Blackmore.

Logic would appear to indicate that a home win is very much on the cards, although we all know that rugby football and logic are far from compatible.

The HONITON first side face a far more difficult task. They visit BIDEFORD, who, having been promoted into the Western Counties division a couple of seasons ago, have adapted well to life in the division.

It is difficult to see the Allhallows side returning from North Devon with anything to show for their afternoon's work, although they will have gained considerable confidence from last Saturday's performance.

As to the second sides Honiton seconds accompany their first side and take on the Bideford second string, and will certainly be assured of a hard game.

Sidmouth seconds also have a difficult encounter when they visit Brixham seconds. Sidmouth thirds are also on the road, and probably have a slightly easier task in prospect at Torrington seconds.

FIXTURES 29th September: Honiton v Bideford (away); Honiton 2nd v Bideford 2nd (away); Sidmouth v Bridgwater & Albion; Sidmouth 2nd v Brixham 2nd (away); Sidmouth 3rd v Torrington 2nd (away).

Seaton U14 2 Honiton 3

AFTER a close first-half Honiton held a slender 1-0 lead.

Seaton came out determined after half-time and equalised with a great goal from Kyle Gould.

But Honiton responded well and took a 3- 1 lead. Ollie Binion went close for Seaton with a shot that hit the cross bar and bounced down on the line but un-fortunately not fully over.

Goal scored late-on for Seaton but too late to push for a draw.

100th marathon for Boyles

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

with Judy Davey

ON Sunday, September 16th, three Honi-ton runners went to Newcastle-Upon-Tyne to take part in the world's biggest half-marathon - the Bupa Great North Run.

About 54,000 runners took part. Alan Rowe MBE, Olivia Higginson and Nick Bradley-Carter were joined by marine Barry Gray and they chose not to race the event but went instead to carry The Baton and spread the word. This they did very well stopping to talk to many fellow runners and spectators along the way.

Mo Farah joined fellow London 2012 Olympic gold medalists Kat Copeland, Greg Rutherford, Nicola Adams and Ellie Simmons to start the race.

Wilson Kipsang was first across the line in 59 minutes 6 seconds. The Honiton group were just a little slower finishing in about 2½ hours.

Sunday's New Forest Marathon was run in heavy rain and a strong wind which didn't help conditions. Neverthe-less, Steve Boyes, in his 100th marathon, managed the great time of 3 hours 33 minutes.

On the same day Graham Reeves and Olivia Higginson turned out for the Woodbury 10km run over undulating course which has two long inclines and an uphill finish.

Graham came 8th in a pb of 40.29 and Olivia finished in her fastest time for this race in 52.06. The race raises money for Christian Aid.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

LUKE Reed finished the last Triathlon

of2012 in blistering form at Langport Sprint Triathlon.

In terrible conditions he signed off in style, finishing 4th overall out of 344 and 3rd in his age group. The time splits were: 400m pool swim - 6.41, 25K bike - 38.27 and 5K Run - 20.49.

It was a cold and wet start to the Coly-wobble 'Source to sea' on Sunday when 16 Axe Valley Runners and two Honiton Running Club members braved the wind and rain to take part in this annual social run.

The trail follows the River Coly as closely as possible from source to sea, starting near Honiton Golf Course and ending at Axmouth.

Much of the 11-mile route is off-road, so the heavy rain made the going soft to boggy at times.

Meanwhile Chris Irving went to Bude to take part in the first running of the BRUTE or the Bude Rats Ultra Trail Expe-rience.

This extended to three distances of 42, 22 and 12 miles with self- navigation over very demanding terrain along sub-stantial sections of the North Cornish Coast.

Chris settled for the 22-mile distance which was rendered even more difficult by a blend of challenging weather at best or truly atrocious at worst.

Chris, who completed the course in just over five hours, said that he felt bruised, shaken and completely stirred – but loved the run.

Golden Hind take triples trophy

Last Tuesday saw the Triples Cup reach its conclusion, with the semi-finals and finals being played at The Lamb Inn in Axminster.

In the first semi-final Whitford Warriors raced to a 9-0 vic-tory over Gerrard Arms B.

The second semi looked like it was heading the same way, with Harbour A taking a commanding 6-0 lead over Golden Hind B. However, the Musbury hit back, running out 9-6 win-ners.

The final followed a similar path; Golden Hind B took at point at the first end, before conceding four to Whitford at the next after a "mishap" with a jumping jack.

The Hind levelled at 4-4 before a four of their own took them to the brink of victory, which was sealed at the next end with their first boule.

Results: Semi-finals: Whitford Warriors 9 Gerrard Arms B 0; Golden Hind B 9 Harbour A 6. Final: Golden Hind B 9 Whit-ford Warriors 4.

All league back matches are now complete. The important match in Division 2 saw Kingfisher A secure the point they needed against Seaton Town FC A to stay up (although they lost 4-1).

The bottom two teams in Divisions 1 and 2 are relegated, whilst the top two teams in Divisions 2 and 3 are promoted; these will be ratified at the 2013 AGM, which will be held on Tuesday, March 5th at Seaton Town FC.

Finally, a reminder that the Whitbread Cup Final, takes place on Tuesday, September 25th at Seaton Town FC, and Presentation Night will be held at Eyre Court Hotel on Tues-day, October 2nd starting at 7.30pm.

Hockey Honiton

Torbay 1 Honiton Hornets 2

HONITON Hornets travelled to Torbay for their first league game of the season on Saturday with four players making their debuts.

Honiton had several first-half chances but couldn't seem to get 'past Torbay's' keeper. Towards the end of the first half however, a shot on target saw the ball rebound from the 'keeper giving new player Laura Frank the chance to open the scoring

In the second-half Torbay however broke back from a 16-yard hit-out and managed to equalise.

A great team move eight minutes from time ended with Emma Adams who slotted the ball behind the keeper to clinch the win for Honiton.

Millwey thriving

MILLWEY Rise's emergence as a force to be reckoned with in local football continues.

Rise, playing in the Perry Street Premier division for the first time after storming the Division One last season at their new Cloakham Lawn home, are unbeaten after three games with two league and one cup victories.

The Blues, under much respected new manager Kevin Turner, moved into second place in the Premier Division with a 3-1 away win over Farway United on maximum points behind leaders Beaminster but with a game in hand.

It's early days yet and Millwey's fortunes in the highest standard they have played at will be tested when they meet league champions Lyme Regis and runners-up Beaminster as the season progresses.

But morale is high at Cloakham and with Sam Dibling demonstrating the influence he will have on Millwey's ability to challenge for the league title by grabbing two goals on Saturday, Turner's men are confident they can more than hold their own at this level.

this coming Saturday.

◆ AXMINSTER Town's run of good form continued with their fifth win of the season in a 2-1 victory of South West Peninsular Division 1 rivals Sidmouth Town in the first round of the Throgmorton Cup. The Tigers now meet Exmouth Town in the second round.

Axe travel to Okehampton on Saturday to resume their Division 1 programme and will be looking for another three points against a side below them in the table to keep them in the top four.

Manager Paul Ashford has got the Tigers well organised, particularly at the back where former Western League player Darren Stewart is playing an important role.

Axminster Reserves, top of the Devon and Exeter Division Four, will be anxious to get back to winning ways at home to neighbours Seaton Town Reserves after losing 3-1 to lowly Woodbury on Saturday.

◆ THE other leading sides in the Axe Valley are experiencing a tough start to the season. Both Seaton Town and Beer Albion have dropped into the bottom half of the Premier division, both losing on Saturday. This coming Saturday Seaton travel to Budleigh Salterton, one place below them in the table, and the Fishermen travel to fifth place Newtown.

Colyton are still looking for their first points in Division One and will be going all out to get some points on the board at Alphington who have only picked up one point from their opening four games.

◆ THE football fraternity in and around Axminster will be saddened by the death of former goalkeeper John Deaves, who has died aged 79. John played for Axminster Town from around 1955 to 1970 and also had a couple of years with Millwey Rise.

His funeral took place at Taunton last Friday and John was cremated wearing an old Axminster shirt.

Sophie becomes Faldo Champion

THERE can be no doubt that 2012 has been a momentous year for 16-year-old Lyme Regis golfing sensation, Sophie Keech.

In a year that has seen her establish herself on the Girls and Ladies Amateur circuit, her season came to a fitting climax at The Lough Erne Resort, Northern Ireland where she won the Faldo Series Europe U16 Girls Final.

After three rounds on the challenging Faldo designed tournament course, Sophie finished eight shots clear of her nearest challenger, Roos Haarman of The Netherlands, to secure the title. Sophie qualified for The Final along with 83 other amateur golfers representing 19 countries. The field included boys and girls under the age of 21, and overall, Sophie finished a brilliant 10th.

As a finale to the tournament, Sophie along with the three other category winners teamed up to play against Sir Nick Faldo in a two hole-one club competition, a tradition of the event.

The match was halved after which Sir Nick said this was the first time he had not won!

Sophie will now join tournament winner, Jack Singh-Bar (Brockenhurst), U21 Girls Champion, Rochelle Morris (Huddersfield) and U21 Boys Champion Robert Busher (Salisbury) to The Faldo Series World Final at Mission Hills, China in March 2013, a course that is home to worldwide Professional Golf Tournaments including The Omega Mission Hills World Cup.

Sophie is promised a very busy time in March as she will also be defending her World Schools Girl Golf Championship in Thailand the same month, a title she won in South Africa two years ago representing Millfield School.

■ WELL DONE: Sophie Keech receives The Faldo Series Europe U16 Girls trophy from Sir Nick Faldo and The Lough Erne Resort Director Of Golf and Head Professional, Lynn McCool

Sophie, who has recently succeeded in getting her handicap below scratch, is now entering the sixth form at Millfield School where she is studying BTEC in Sport as well as increasing her tuition and practise times on the school campus for her golf.

Karen Nicholls, Sophie's golf coach and Director Of Golf at Millfield School said: "Myself and all the staff at Millfield are absolutely thrilled with the result and we look forward with much excitement to the challenges that lie ahead for Sophie in 2013".
